

Building Envelope & Roofing Systems

Presented by Michael Gallahue, GHD Limited

Join your BOMA O&E colleagues on September 18th for our first luncheon of the new season. Michael Gallahue of GHD Limited will be our guest speaker, and the topic will be building envelope and roofing systems.

Michael's presentation will focus on the various building envelope and roofing system options for commercial buildings and the pros and cons of these systems. The presentation will also focus on the importance of regular inspections and maintenance to extend the useful life cycle of these important building components. Inspection methods and frequencies will be discussed, as will common types of failures that can occur due to lack of routine maintenance and inspections.

Don't miss out on this great presentation... see you September 18th at 1801 Hollis Street!
